We are building the No. 4 to You'll like this mower, not merely because thousands of other farmers like it, but because it is a really

THURSDAY, JUNE 29, 1893.

The attendance at the Liberal convention lately held at Ottawa was, in point of numbers, very encouraging, but, judging from the reports of conclusions arrived at, one is inclined to the opinion that it was by no means as great a success as the rank and file of the party had hoped for. The position of the leaders on the chief question affecting the country at present was not very clearly defined, while not a single reference was made to the policy of a few years ago—Unrestricted Reciprocity. Mr. Laurier told his friends that from this time out Free Trade should be the goal towards which they should aim.

He knew that for many years to come it could not be obtained, but in the meantime their policy should be to levy only such duties as would enable the business of the country to be carried on. Sir Richard is in favor of a reformed tariff reduced to a revenue basis. In this announcement it is difficult to see even the faintest indication of the dawn of better days for either the country or Liberal party. These leaders are not noted for ever having a very clearly defined policy or for staying with an alleged policy for any length of time, so we may expect something new before the next general election. In denouncing the Conservative Government Sir Richard manifests remarkable stability, and at the convention declared again that the people of Canada had been duped and plundered; the country controlled by a well organized conspiracy; robbery was their object and their weapons bribery and corruption.

We sell at the lowest possible living profit, and solicit a careful inspection of all our goods.

If we were so disposed we could put in a stock of shoddy factory goods that we could sell at prices away down, but we are here to stay, and will sell nothing that we cannot guarantee as first class.

The Free Press of Tuesday publishes a report of a meeting of the local Liberal-Conservative Association of Grenfell, held on the 24th, at which a very strong resolution was passed condemnatory of the action of Sir John Thompson for having a Court House built at Wolseley. We have refrained from expressing our views as to which town was most entitled to the much coveted prize, from the fact that it is a matter of little concern to the majority of our readers. To our mind it will not materially add to the prosperity of Wolseley, or a loss of the Court sittings be felt by Grenfell. Qu'Appelle has had regular sittings of the Court, for several years past, and not a single house more has been built or an individual added to our population in consequence. Few if any of the law abiding citizens would ever know that Court was being held only for the presence in the town of Mr. Justice Richardson and the Court officials. We cannot think that the staunch Conservatives of Grenfell were a party to such hasty action over a matter so trifling.

TERRIBLE DISASTER TO A BRITISH BATTLESHIP.

The British battleship, Victoria, the flagship of the Mediterranean squadron, has been lost, together with a large number of her officers and crew.

The Victoria, which flew the flag of Vice-Admiral Sir Geo. Tryon, K.C.
B., was run into off Tipoli, a port town north-east of Beirut, Syria, by the Camperdown, also belonging to the Mediterranean squadron, and under the command of Captain Charles Johnstone. The two vessels collided while manoeuvring, and the Camperdown ram struck the Victoria forward of the turret on the starboard side, making an enormous hole through which the water poured in torrents. In fifteen minutes the ship had gone to the bottom, carrying down with her a large number of those on board.

Vice-Admiral Tryon, father of Mr.
C. R. Tryon, of Grenfell, lost his life. Some of the officers and crew who were on deck at the time of the accident managed to get out of the suction caused by the sinking vessel and were rescued. The complement of officers and crew of the Victoria comprised six hundred men, and it is estimated that the total number of lives lost is 350.

It is said that several times the Victoria has shown weakness in her steering gear, and one theory is that on account of this weakness she became unmanageable and could not be got out of the way of the other vessel. Shortly after the collision five bodies were taken from the water, one of them the body of the chief paymaster. They were buried with military honors at Tipoli. The Camperdown was severely damaged forward in the collision. Temporary repairs will be made and she will then start for home.

The United Press correspondent, in giving an account of the accident, said as soon as the collision took place Admiral Tryon tried to run the Victoria ashore but the distance was too great. The invalids and prisoners were brought on deck, and provision was hastily made for their safety in case of the worst.

The crew remained at their post.
Admiral Tryon apparently realized that his vessel was doomed beyond all hope. He then gave the order

"Let every man save himself," but did not himself attempt to leave the ship. He was the last man seen as she plunged her bow under water. He stood on the bridge as long as it was possible to stand anywhere above deck, and all agree that he showed rare heroism. When he had ordered all to save themselves the coxswain ran up to him with a life belt. Tryon refused to take it, and told the man to see to his own safety. He stood on the bridge motionless, and with folded arms awaited sure death. Without exception the officers and crew behaved nobly.

It has been decided that Rear Admiral Albert H. Markham, who was second in command to Vice-Admiral Sir George Tryon at the time of the accident, will be tried by court martial that will sit in Portsmouth. The court will be presided over by Admiral Earl Clau-william, commander-in-chief at Portsmouth, whose son, Lord Gilford, was flag lieutenant of the Victoria. Rear Admiral Markham's flagship, the Trafalgar, but his flag had been transferred to the Camperdown, and he was in charge of the manoeuvres of the fleet at the time of the collision.

Mr. Gladstone was greatly shocked when he was informed of the sinking of the Victoria and the great loss of life that had attended the foundering of the vessel.

GRENFELL.

J. W. Brown was sentenced last Thursday to one month's confinement in the Police Barracks, Regina, with hard labour. Judge Wetmore in reviewing the case, said that had it happened in England the prisoner would have been acquitted, but the altered circumstances of this country made a person responsible where he would not be held responsible in England. As this was the first case of the kind, and taking the character of the prisoner in consideration, he wished simply to vindicate the law, but he warned the public that as the president had been established, he would not be as lenient in the future. The verdict appears to give general satisfaction in the neighborhood.

Mr. O. F. Skrine, accompanied by his bride, arrived from England last Wednesday. The band serenaded them at the station and at his store.

Quite an excitement was caused in town last Thursday morning when the section men brought in the report that a corpse had been found about a mile and a half east of the town. Quite a number visited the spot and found the report to be true. The body had evidently been there for some days, as the face and head had decayed and only the bones remained. The rest of the body had partially decayed. It is quite evident that the man had been murdered, as the body had been placed in a ditch, covered over with branches and then covered with railroad ties. Nothing was found on the body to identify it, but it is supposed to be that of a man about forty-five years of age who passed through here on Monday, the 12th inst. He carried a pack on his back, which was evidently the motive of the murder.

Everybody who wants to have a good time on July 1st should come to Grenfell. Football match in the morning, horse races, foot races, etc., in the afternoon.

Messrs. Fraser and Rowland have dissolved partnership.

Mr. W. H. Malkin left for the World's Fair yesterday (Monday).

C. E. Wright, V.S., is away this week on government business.

Seven families of Germans, comprising sixty people, arrived last Friday. The German settlement north of us, now comprises about 150 families.

WOLSELEY.

Mrs. John Dill and family, who arrived from the east on Friday evening's train on a brief visit to her friends here, intends returning to her old home in Nova Scotia in a few weeks.

Rev. W. A. Cook, Methodist minister, who was formerly stationed here, and who has been visiting his parents at Pleasant Forks for the past week, left on the 26th inst. for Saskatoon, where he is now stationed.

Beautiful weather has prevailed in this district for some time past. Rain in abundance and farmers are jubilant over the prospects of reaping a bountiful harvest.

Mrs. McAlonen and family left on Friday evening's train for Fairview, on a visit to her sister, Mrs. J. J. W. Bell. On her return she intends stopping off at Qu'Appelle.

CASE OF FOUND DEAD NEAR VIRDEN.

Albert Earnest Greaves was found dead in his house, six miles south of Virden, at the end of last week. Coroner Young and Dr. Guest held an inquest, and the verdict was death from causes not known. He had been dead two days. John Mundell, a neighbor, went to call on him, and saw Greaves lying dead near the stove on the floor. There is no appearance of foul play. A married sister lives at Deloraine.

BLAKE WANTS TO RESIGN.

It is stated in the Edinburgh Scotsman that Edward Blake has intimated to the Irish leaders that he desires to resign his seat in the Imperial Parliament and return to Canada. This step, the paper says, has been decided on by Blake because he finds his advice counts for nothing; that personal jealousies, and not public interest, reign supreme.

MACKINTOSH RETURNS.

OTTAWA, June 26.—Chas. Mackintosh, M.P., returned from England today. Judging from all he could hear in Paris the outlook for the Canadian case in the Behring Sea arbitration is good. In the matter of regulations to be applied to sealing in Behring Sea he anticipates considerable difference of opinion among the arbitrators. He denies emphatically the Montreal Herald's report that he stated everything had been settled with regard to his appointment as Lieut.-Governor of the Territories. Mackintosh states the report of the Herald is made out of whole cloth. So far as filling the governorship of Manitoba and the Territories are concerned it is learned on authority that no action will be taken by the government until the first minister returns from Europe.

BIRTHS.

Caesarean—On the 23rd inst., at Qu'Appelle, the wife of Dr. Carshaw, of a daughter. Still born.

Born—On the 26th inst., at Wolseley, the wife of the Rev. J. H. Burrows, of a daughter.
